Market Would Have Been Steady with Usual Supply

The only shipper on the market yesare evidently prolonging the Christmas festivities and they are not buying hogs. The hogs that came in after the market closed Thursday night were all sold yesteritay morning at Thursday's prices. There was not a car load of fresh re-ceipts on the market. If there had been any the buyers said they would have brought steady prices as compared with Thursday. The packers did not expect many hogs yesterday but their buyers were on board to buy them if any did come. Light receipts are expected all this week, but after that time the indications
